

IN BETWEEN FESTIVALS 2016

In Between Festivals is more than just a festival – it is a year-round series of Jazz concerts and performances focusing on contemporary dance. Over the course of Wrocław's tenure as European Capital of Culture 2016, Jazz musicians and dancers from Berlin will travel to Wrocław to present their work to local audiences and the broad Polish cultural scene. More than 30 events will take place at different locations in Wrocław. Among the musicians participating are numerous artists from Berlin's alternative scene. Several musicians will perform in Wrocław for the first time, including artists such as Philm, Katchrin Pechlof Trio, Olaf Rupp, Gulf of Berlin, Killing Popes and Sequoia. In the field of contemporary dance, the festival programme will be shaped by Hermann Heisig, Rafał Dziemidok, Eve Garniec, Maria F. Scaroni, Vania Rovisco and Jule Flierl. Each dance presentation will be accompanied by an artist talk hosted by Ania Nowak, Agata Siniarska and Karolina Wycisk. Dance workshops will take place on the day before each performance in cooperation with Rusza Festival Wrocław. The final dance event in December featuring Peter Pleyer will concentrate on the interaction of the Berlin and Polish contemporary dance scenes. The Artistic Director is Christophe Knoch from Mica Moca project berlin.e.V.
